

Li's Lies: Pinscreen's Assault and Battery on Sadeghi

Background

I, Dr. Iman Sadeghi, filed a verified complaint<sup>1</sup> on June 11, 2018, and the verified amended complaint<sup>2</sup> on October 5, 2018, in the Superior Court of California against Dr. Hao Li, who is the CEO of Pinscreen Inc. and an assistant professor at University of Southern California (USC).

In addition to alleging that Li perpetrated Fraud and Deceit, Data Fabrication, and Academic Misconduct, I allege that Li and three other Pinscreen employees committed Assault and Battery on me on August 7, 2017:

Li denied the allegations of Assault and Battery and made false statements in various venues including the LA Times<sup>3</sup>, The Register<sup>4</sup> and USC Annenberg Media<sup>5</sup>.

Security Camera Footage

Li and Pinscreen refused to produce the security camera footage of the physical altercation incident during the discovery. The footage was obtained through a subpoena of the building security:

The security camera footage confirms Sadeghi's Allegations and exposes Li's Lies.<sup>6</sup>

Sadeghi's Allegations:

Verified Amended Complaint:

280. After Sadeghi, Li, and other employees left the elevator, Sadeghi attempted to leave the building through the lobby. [TRUE] However, Li and three other Pinscreen employees, Yen-Chun Chen, Hu, and Kung, under Li's commands, surrounded Sadeghi and physically attacked him. [TRUE] They grabbed Sadeghi and his backpack, which he was wearing, forcefully restrained him, opened his backpack, and took possession of Sadeghi's work laptop. [TRUE]

282. The battery, on information and belief, has been captured on the security cameras of the building and the recordings have been preserved by the building security team. [TRUE] The security officers on duty described the battery as Sadeghi being "grabbed," "brought to the ground," and "taken to the ground" by Pinscreen employees. [TRUE]

329. The defendants, including Li, Yen-Chun Chen, Hu, and Kung, committed battery on Sadeghi through intentional, non-consensual, offensive and harmful physical contact. [TRUE]

330. On August 7, 2017, Pinscreen employees, including Li, forcefully grabbed, restrained, and physically attacked Sadeghi. [TRUE] They forcefully opened Sadeghi’s backpack and took possession of his work laptop. [TRUE]

331. Each of the four defendants, Li, Yen-Chun Chen, Hu, and Kung, either touched, grabbed or attacked Sadeghi or acted in concert with the defendants who did. [TRUE]

Li’s Lies:

Los Angeles Times:

- “All the allegations are 100% false,” said Li. [FALSE]
- “There was no assault,” Li said. [FALSE]
- “There was no battery. It’s like when you play soccer and a guy touches you. There’s nothing.” [FALSE]

The Register:

- The chief executive denied the allegations of image fabrication and violence. [FALSE]
- “The exact opposite happened,” Li told us. [FALSE]
- “No one assaulted him.” [FALSE]
- On information and belief, Li alleged that Sadeghi was the one who was violent and assaulted a Pinscreen employee.<sup>7</sup> [FALSE]

USC Annenberg Media:

- Li alleged in his statement that Sadeghi “assaulted a Pinscreen employee.”<sup>8</sup> [FALSE]
